

Blue Slipper

29. Blue Slipper,
8058 Main Street

An artesian well at one time emptied into a horse trough in front of the Blue Slipper, which has long reigned at the southwest corner of First and Main Streets. This brick building is shown on the 1895 insurance map. Hans Hansen owned the saloon in earlier years; it was purported to have had a special entrance for the ladies. A restaurant has been established in this remodeled building during recent years and was eventually called the "Blue Slipper Bistro."
