

Wick-a-te-wah

17. Wick-a-te-wah, north of Crescent Beach Road, accessed by Leonard Street

In 1902, a road to Wick-a-te-wah, the cottage property with an Indian name meaning a place of rest, had been built and men were clearing avenues through the property, which was being developed by H. Ward Leonard of Manistee.

Some Early Views of Wick-a-te-wah

3512 Crescent Beach Road

House and Former Arbor at 3813 Lakeshore Drive

3827
Lakeshore
Drive

